

PRESS RELEASE

1/24/12

The City of Cleveland has hired Mr. Dion O. Miller for the position of City Manager, to begin work on February 21, 2012.

Mr. Dion O. Miller has served in Texas Cities ranging from 5,000 to 70,000 in population with a versatile and experienced leadership and management expertise.

Mr. Miller has worked with elected officials, citizens, and city staff members in the areas of development and implementation of strategic and comprehensive plans to carry out the community's vision, coaching and mentoring staff members to achieve excellence and professional growth in their work, successful economic development programs creating and retaining jobs while expanding the city's tax base, value added initiatives related to downtown redevelopment, tourism and historic preservation, and development, passage and implementation of capital improvement programs involving every facet of city services.

Mr. Miller has proven expertise in administration, research/planning, public relations and specializes in staff development, procedural organization, conflict resolution, negotiation and project management with in-depth experience in budgeting, economic development, city planning, administrative management, grant management, public works and utility systems.